

Primary Care Associations and Health Centers Working to Integrate Behavioral Health and Addiction Medicine in Primary Care

NAME OF PCA	GOALS	APPROACH	MEASURES	PARTNERS
Alabama Primary Health Care Association 	Improve access to substance use disorder services by engaging patients through SBIRT and a mobile application	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Evidence-based Care: Assemble a new Behavioral Health Steering Committee comprised of an LCSW from each of Alabama's 17 health centers to develop standardized policies for SBIRT implementation Health Information Technology: Pilot the NeuroFlow mobile application in two health centers, including patient engagement strategies and integration with the electronic medical record 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Increase the number of health centers in Alabama that implement SBIRT 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Opioid Response Network Behavioral Health Steering Committee NeuroFlow Alabama Health Center Controlled Network 2 Alabama health centers
Health Center Association of Nebraska (HCAN) 	Increase opioid use disorder (OUD) screening efforts, referral to treatment and other services, and staff education within primary care at two Nebraska health centers in order to reach a wider population of patients	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Training and Technical Assistance: Engage an expert to provide oversight and consultation on the development, refinement, and roll-out of processes, workflow, and staff training for the health center's newly implemented SBIRT program (Community Action Health Center, rural) Clinical Research: Participate in a clinical trial to test a) whether a collaborative care model that addresses both mental health conditions and co-occurring OUD can improve patient lives and b) the effectiveness of screening for OUD and sustainability issues (OneWorld Community Health Centers, urban) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Number of primary care staff trained in their respective collaborative/integrative OUD models Number of patients receiving access to OUD services in follow up to their initial primary care screening 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Opioid Response Network Community Action Health Center OneWorld Community Health Centers Chavez Psychological Services, LLC, Minnesota University of Washington AIMS Center

Primary Care Associations and Health Centers Working to Integrate Behavioral Health and Addiction Medicine in Primary Care

NAME OF PCA	GOALS	APPROACH	MEASURES	PARTNERS
Nevada Primary Care Association (NVPCA) 	Improve OUD screening and treatment in one large Nevada health center through technology solutions in order to increase timely access to high quality integrated behavioral health services and improve health outcomes among people with OUD	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • HIT Enabled Quality Improvement: Explore different vendors and sustainable workflows that offer technology to enhance the health center's electronic medical record system to include an OUD screening assessment template and establish a customized and automated process for patients to electronically complete a self-paced OUD screening questionnaire through the patient portal before coming to the center or in the waiting room prior to their appointment • Training and Technical Assistance: NVPCA to provide Nevada-specific training and customized technical assistance to help the health center identify and treat patients with OUD • Scale and Spread: Lessons learned determine best practices for implementation across the health center's rural, urban and territorial sites, at other health center organizations in Nevada, and at health centers that are members of NVPCA's Health Center Controlled Network 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Number of patients screened for OUD using the SBIRT model assessment screening tool 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Opioid Response Network • Nevada Health Centers, Inc. (NVHC) clinicians, medical, administrative, and IT staff • NVPCA's Health Center Controlled Network • State of Nevada and University of Nevada at Reno, State Opioid Response • Pacific Southwest Mental Health Technology Transfer Center
Community HealthCare Association of the Dakotas (CHAD) 	Develop and improve SBIRT and other screening, treatment, and referral options through the use of telehealth	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Training and Technical Assistance: Engage experts to provide training and technical assistance to health centers in 1) the development of improved workflows for SBIRT and other behavioral health interventions delivered virtually and 2) the analysis of their telehealth services • Coaching and Peer Learning: Support health center improvement efforts through coaching calls and workgroup meetings 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • At least 7 health centers will attend the training that is offered and receive a general outline of what a workflow may look like • At least 7 health centers will implement some aspect of telehealth screening 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Opioid Response Network • Spectra Health • Horizon Health Care • National Consortium of Telehealth Resource Centers

Funding for this initiative was made possible (in part) by grant no. 6H79T1080816 from SAMHSA. The views expressed in written conference materials or publications and by speakers and moderators do not necessarily reflect the official policies of the Department of Health and Human Services; nor does mention of trade names, commercial practices, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.