Workshop Description

NACHC's new Board Chair Leadership Program is designed for new health center board chairs or those about to step into the board chair role at a health center. This five-part virtual program will address the role of the board chair, the board chair-CEO partnership, board meeting facilitation, navigating conflict, board chair succession planning, and more. The training program offers an interactive and action-oriented learning experience through engagement with experienced board chairs, fellow participants, and subject matter experts. Registration is limited to ensure a small cohort-based approach. Participants that attend each of the five sessions will receive a Certificate of Completion.

Learning objectives

By the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Identify goals for their term as board chair.
- Apply strategies related to effective board meeting facilitation.
- Discuss techniques to enhance board governance and navigate group dynamics.

Registration Process

Registration for the Board Chair Leadership Program is a two-part process:

1. APPLY: Click here and complete the online form. Applications will be reviewed by program staff from trainings@nachc.org, and you will be notified of the status of your application within one week of submission.
2. Once notified of acceptance to the Board Chair Leadership Program, you will be provided with a link to complete your registration and payment for the course. If payment is not made within 10 days of notification, or prior to the registration closing date of March 2, 2022 (whichever comes first), your place in the course may be released to another participant.

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis until the course is full (approximately 24 participants) or until March 2, 2022. A waiting list will be developed once the course has reached capacity. Wait listed applicants will be given priority to fill a cancellation spot.
